
Andrew Grill

Actionable Futurist and former IBM Global Managing Partner Andrew Grill is a popular and sought-after keynote speaker and trusted board-level technology advisor.

With a broad career spanning over 30 years in large corporates such as IBM, British Aerospace and Telstra, as well as 12 years running technology start-ups, Andrew is a highly experienced authority on a wide range of topics related to technology trends and the digital world.

Unlike traditional Futurists who paint a picture of the future in 10, 20 or even 50 years' time, Andrew delivers practical and immediately actionable insights in every session.

A strong digital advocate and former Engineer, Andrew believes that “to get digital you need to be digital”, and his engaging keynotes provide actionable insights on how to harness digital technologies to achieve corporate goals on a global and long-lasting scale.

Andrew has spoken in over 40 countries worldwide. Recent clients include senior executives from DHL, Nike, Nestle, Adobe, Canon, Barclays, AIB Bank, Bupa, Fidelity International, L'Oréal, The European Central Bank, Mars, Vodafone, NHS, Telstra, LinkedIn, Worldpay, IHS Markit, Mercer, Euler Hermes, Arriva, Wella, Johnson Matthey, Genpact, Taylor Wessing, Ingram Micro Cloud, Bunzl, De Beers, Sanofi, CB Richard Ellis, Thomson Reuters, Royal London, ANZ, KPMG, and Schroders. He also delivers workshops and provides strategic advice at the C-suite and Board levels.

Andrew's first book “Digitally Curious” will be published by Wiley in 2023, and will provide actionable advice on what's now and what's next when it comes to technology and business.
