
ANN OSMAN

LONDON
SPEAKER
BUREAU

- Time Magazine's Next Generation Leaders
 - Professional MMA Fighter
-

Ann Osman, also known by her fight name Athena is Malaysia's 1st Female Mixed Martial Artist to be signed and to fight for one of the world's biggest Martial Art promotion, ONE Championship. She has also garnered attention as the 1st Muslim female MMA athlete to be competing in a Mixed martial art international arena and has been covered by international media platforms such as New York Times, Al Jazeera and named as TIME Magazine's Next Generation Leader in 2014.

Over the past 6 years, Ann has competed in 10 MMA bouts in ONE Championship since 2013 and despite having to hang her fighting gloves early 2018, Ann continues to pave the way for new martial art comers as she has joined the ONE Championship force as a Talent Recruiter and color commentator.

Ann is a successful entrepreneur herself as she co-founded and runs her travel and outdoor adventure company, Travel Rite Tours in Kota Kinabalu, Sabah. A brand personality and influencer, Ann has worked with both local and international brands including Adidas, HTC, RipCurl, and many more.

Topics

- Asia
- Motivation
- Sports
- Women