
Yu Jie

Dr Yu Jie is senior research fellow on China at Chatham House, focusing on the decision-making process of Chinese foreign policy as well as China's economic diplomacy.

She frequently comments in major media outlets such as BBC News and the Financial Times; and regularly briefs senior policy practitioners from the G7 member governments, the Silk Road Fund in Beijing. She also frequently advises major FTSE 100 corporates and leading European financial institutions on China's political landscape.

Yu Jie has testified on China's foreign affairs at various UK Parliament committees and was previously head of China Foresight at LSE IDEAS. She remains as an associate fellow with LSE IDEAS and obtained her PhD in International Relations at LSE. Prior to LSE, she was a management consultant, specializing in Chinese state-owned enterprises investments in Europe and Chinese market entry strategies for European conglomerates at the London Office of Roland Berger.

The London School of Economics and Political Science recognized her as one of its 'Leading Women' in 2018 for her contribution in teaching and engaging the public debates on China's foreign affairs. She is a "Young Leader" for the 2022 Asian Security Shangri-La Dialogue.
