

LISA WONG

Emcee & TV Host with a multi-faceted career in broadcasting

Lively and witty, candid and intuitive - these are some of the qualities that best describe Lisa Wong. Recognised for her strong work ethics and professionalism, Lisa is a much sought after emcee for public and corporate events. She has managed numerous high profile awards' nights, launches and dinner events in Malaysia, Thailand and Singapore, for a broad list of clients that include, amongst others, VERSACE, SIA, Volvo, Allianz Insurance, Public Bank, OCBC, Temasek Holdings, Maxis, Nestle, Shiseido, Bank Negara, Audi, Honda, Samsung, AFC, Air Asia, Huawei, MAS, L'oreal, Hyundai, ntv7, ESPN, Proton, Watsons, various governmental bodies and national scale events.

Lisa's foray into broadcasting began after an audition for a talkshow presenter, the year after she graduated with a business degree. She feels privileged to have helmed a career that has spanned over 20 different tv shows, and interviewed an extensive list of societal figures, Prime Ministers, business powerhouses and some of the hottest entertainment acts. Her encounters with martial art star Jackie Chan, F1 legend Michael Schumacher and music genius Julio Iglesias remained as some of her most memorable interviews. Spurred by her hosting and journalistic abilities in both English & Malay, Lisa has hosted various tv shows in a long list of genres - entertainment, women's programme, current affair, documentary, news and sports - reaching audiences in Malaysia and throughout South East Asia.

Lisa graduated with a Business degree from the University of Technology Sydney, Australia. She is also a MQA certified Complementary Health Practitioner, with a Diploma in Diet and Nutrition (ITEC) from RPA Holistic Wellness Academy.

Currently

1. Host of Women's Talkshow, 'Bella' on NTV7
2. Health Writer
3. Health & Well Being

Coach Previously

1. Host of NTV&'s 'The Breakfast Show'
2. Anchor at ESPN & Host on StarSports

Other Involvements

Volunteer at SPCA & Pure Life Society (Started the 'Reading Program' for under privileged children)