Co-founder of Netflix

Marc Randolph is a veteran Silicon Valley entrepreneur, advisor and investor. He was co-founder of the on-line movie and television streaming service Netflix, serving as their founding CEO.

Although best known for starting Netflix, Randolph's career as an entrepreneur spans more than four decades. He's been a founder of more than half a dozen other successful start-ups, a mentor to hundreds of early stage entrepreneurs, and an investor in numerous successful (and an even larger number of unsuccessful) tech ventures.

Most recently, Randolph co-founded analytics software company Looker Data Sciences, and currently serves as an advisor to numerous other startups, serving variously as a mentor, CEO coach, and/or board member.

He is a frequent speaker at industry events, works extensively with young entrepreneur programs, and is a trustee of the non-profit National Outdoor Leadership School.
